Commandant's Desk

Dear Parents, Staff and Students,

As we resume the second term, we are indeed privileged to welcome back our students after the Diwali vacations. Before the break, our students had embarked on an Educational-cum-Military Tour across various states. The tour was conducted in an exemplary manner and provided valuable learning experiences beyond the classroom. The students have returned rejuvenated and motivated to take on the challenges of the new term, including the forthcoming board examinations.

It is heartening to note that the tour was very well received by the students, and we have also received encouraging feedback from parents, who appreciated the enriching experiences their wards shared. We aim to make such tours even more meaningful and impactful with further value additions in the coming years.

The second term promises to be a busy and eventful one, with numerous academic and co-curricular activities lined up, especially during the month of December. Preparations for these events have already begun in full swing. Students are encouraged to stay focused, disciplined and proactive in managing their time effectively.

For our Class 10 and 12 students, this term holds special significance as they gear up for their board examinations — a milestone in their academic journey. I extend my best wishes to them for success and excellence in their forthcoming exams. May they continue to uphold the values of hard work, determination and integrity that define Bhonsala Military School.

Warm Regards,
Col Sandeep Puri (Retd)
Commandant

When Devices Talk – The Magic of IoT

The Internet of Things (IoT) is transforming the way we interact with technology by connecting everyday objects — from home appliances and vehicles to security systems and wearable devices — through the internet. This powerful network allows machines to communicate, share data and make intelligent decisions with minimal human intervention.

In education, IoT is creating smart classrooms, improving learning experiences through digital tools and real-time information sharing. In daily life, it enhances efficiency, safety, and convenience, making the world more connected than ever before. For the Ramdandees, understanding IoT opens a window to the future of innovation, encouraging them to explore how technology can be used responsibly to build a smarter, more sustainable world.

Air Wing Cadet Flying Experience

Date: 24 October 2025

Venue: Air Force Station, Lohagaon, Pune

Aircraft: Microlight SW-3904

I had the privilege of experiencing a flight in the Microlight aircraft SW-3904 at Air Force Station, Lohagaon. The disciplined and professional environment set the tone from the start. After security checks and a detailed briefing on the aircraft, controls, and safety procedures, we geared up and headed to the flying area.

As the engine roared to life and we lifted off, the thrill of being airborne was indescribable. The aerial view of Pune was breathtaking, and observing the pilot's precision and communication with ATC offered valuable insights into aviation discipline. I even got the chance to briefly handle the controls — an exciting and inspiring moment. The smooth landing marked the perfect end to an unforgettable experience. Heartfelt thanks to Col. Sandeep Puri Sir (Retd.), Maj V. J. Kawale Sir, Gp Capt Santosh Babu Sir, and ANO S/O Dr. J. R. Magare Sir for this incredible opportunity.
